

John Blaser

69 Maplewood Drive
Brewster, New York, 10509
845-279-6874
john@johnblaser.com
<http://www.johnblaser.com>

Objective

Instructor, Consultant

Professional Experience

2000 – Present                      Eastchester UFSD                      Eastchester, New York

Technology Integration Specialist

Serve as a trainer, mentor and coach to classroom teachers (K-12) to assist them with the planning, development and implementation of lessons that integrate technology into the curriculum. Prepare training materials on specific software applications for teachers and students. Conduct workshops, training workshops, study groups and classroom demonstrations related to technology. Expertise on SMART Boards, interactive videoconferencing, visual learning and web-based activities.

2006 – present                      Brooklyn College                      Brooklyn, New York

Adjunct Professor

Teach graduate-level courses in gifted education leading to a New York State Extension in Gifted Education. Course content includes historical foundations, nature and needs of the gifted; screening and identification of the gifted; program planning and development; curriculum for the gifted and differentiation for the gifted.

2001 – present                      New York Institute of Technology      Old Westbury, New York

Adjunct Professor

Teach graduate-level courses in degree program in instructional technology. Specific courses taught are: Introduction to Computers, Philosophy of Instructional Technology, Multimedia Classroom Applications and the Role of the Computer Coordinator. All courses incorporate an online course site using Blackboard.

2001 – present                      College of New Rochelle                      New Rochelle, New York

Assistant Professor

Teach graduate-level courses in instructional technology including Visual Learning, Web-Based Learning, Web Page Development, Technology Integration, and Technology for School Leaders.

2001 - Present                      BEPT Teacher Center                      Pelham, New York

Instructor

Provide traditional and online technology professional development courses to practicing K-12 teachers to foster the integration of technology with classroom curriculum and instruction.

2001 – Present                      Edith Winthrop Teacher Center      Hartsdale, New York

Instructor

Provide traditional and online technology professional development courses to practicing K-12 teachers: Creating Web-Based Learning Activities for the Classroom and Visual Tools and Inspiration.

2001                                      Concordia College                      Bronxville, New York

Adjunct Professor

Taught an undergraduate course in curriculum development and evaluation. Students developed interdisciplinary unit plans that addressed New York State Learning Standards and National Educational Technology Standards.

1986 – 2000                      Eastchester UFSD                      Eastchester, New York

Teacher of the Gifted and Talented/Enrichment Specialist

Developed multidisciplinary, technology-based curriculum and provided whole class enrichment experiences to students in grades 3-5. Delivered enrichment extension experiences to students in grades 3-5.

1999 - 2000 Eastchester UFSD Eastchester, New York

Lead Elementary Technology Facilitator

Provided in-class support to K-5 teachers in three schools. Developed technology training materials and resources for teachers, grades K-12. Planned and delivered technology training for teachers, grades K-6.

1985-1989 Oregon State University Corvallis, Oregon

Director/Instructor for Adventures in Learning Summer Program

Developed descriptive brochure and promotion campaign. Recruited, trained, screened course proposals, managed budgets and conducted evaluation of instructors and program. Developed and taught classes in psychology, creative thinking and writing.

1984-1986 Corvallis School District 509J Corvallis, Oregon

Teacher of the Gifted and Talented

Screened and identified students for gifted/talented program, grades 4-6. Developed and taught thematic curriculum in five elementary schools. Taught Philosophy for Children, Future Problem Solving and Odyssey of the Mind.

1978-1981 Pearl B. Larsen School St. Croix, U.S.V.I.

Teacher of the Academically Talented

Developed and implemented individualized program for grades 4-6. Accelerated curriculum in all content areas. Provided enrichment experiences through the use of learning centers.

Education

2002 – 2004 College of New Rochelle New Rochelle, NY

M.S. Administration and Staff Development

1999-2002 New York Institute of Technology Old Westbury, NY

M.S. Instructional Technology (graduated with distinction)

1981-1983 C. W. Post College Greenvale, NY

M.S. Elementary Education/Gifted and Talented

1974-1978 C. W. Post College Greenvale, NY

B.S. Elementary Education (graduated Cum Laude)

Certification

New York State Permanent Teaching Credential (N-6)

New York State SAS (School Administrator and Supervisor)

New York State SDA (School District Administrator)

New York State Gifted Education Extension

Distinctions, Honors and Memberships

Christa McAuliffe Fellowship Award (1988)

BEPT Teacher Center Policy Board Chairperson

Eastchester Teachers Association Treasurer

Eastchester Teachers Association Vice-President for Professional Development

International Society for Technology in Education Interactive Video Conferencing Special Interest Group

SMART Technologies Exemplary Educator (2007)

Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration Advisory Board (2007)

References

Available Upon Request